This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

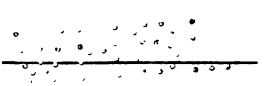
THE WINSHIP FAMILY IN AMERICA

Giving the Line of Descent from Edward Winship, born in England in 1613, who came to Cambridge, Massachusetts, in 1635, to Jabez Lathrop Winship, born in Norwich, Conn., 1752, died in Brookville, Indiana, 1827, with the Record of the Families of His Children and Grandchildren, with their Line of Descent from William the Conqueror.

BY ERNEST B. COLE



INDIANAPOLIS, IND.
November, 1905

TO THE DECENDENTS OF EDWARD WINSHIP

Every person of intelligence has a desire to know something of their ancestry—from who they came, where they lived and their occupation.

It is an old admonition, "Honor thy father and thy mother that thy days may be long in the land the Lord, thy God, giveth thee."

How better can we honor them than by preserving the records of their lives? If we do not do this much to preserve their history, how can we expect our own records to be kept?

This country is fast filling up with foreigners, and the time is coming when it will be an honor to be able to show that our ancestors for two hundred and fifty years have been instrumental in developing, making and defending this, the greatest country under the sun.

In presenting to you this incomplete record of the descendents of Edward Winship, incomplete as it is, it is as nearly complete as could be obtained from the records of the towns in which they lived, and from a thorough search through the principal libraries of New England for geneological and historical facts connected with their lives; and, if it will create or stimulate a desire on the part of his descendents to use the sheets in this work prepared for the purpose of keeping a record of their families, in order that some future geneologist may have better and more complete data from which to compile the record of the family, my effort will not have been in vain.

The name of Winship was spelled in many ways, namely: Winshepp, Winshop, Winshape, Winshope, Winchep, Windchepp and Windship. Edward, the founder of the line in America, spelled his name Winshipp, but his descendents dropped one p, and spelled it as it is now commonly spelled, W-i-n-s-h-i-p.

The record of Edward Winship will entitle all of his descendents to membership in the societies of "Sons of Colonial Times," "Colonial Dames," and other colonial organizations. The record of Jabez Winship will entitle all his descendents to membership in the "Sons" and "Daughters of the Revolution."

At the request of some of the family I include the line of descent of the Winship family from "William the Conqueror."

The record of the Winship family in England I have not attempted to examine, leaving this for some member of the Winship family to secure.

I desire to thank the members of the present generations for the assistance given in the production of the record of their families. and if some of them are more complete than others, it is because they have given it more attention. and I regret that some of them are not more complete than they are or as they ought to be.

EDWARD WINSHIP

Edward Winship, who stands at the head of the Winship family in America, was born in England in 1613. He embarked for America in the good ship, The Defiance, at Harwich; England, August 10, 1635; arrived in Boston, Massachusetts, October 3, 1635, and two days later located in Cambridge, Massachusetts, a suburb of Boston. In 1638 he purchased the land commencing at the corner of Brattle and Mason streets, extending to the Commons. and he was for many years one of the most active and energetic citizens of Cambridge. He was commissioned ensign of the Cambridge militia company in 1647, and lieutenant in 1660. He was elected deputy general of the court in the years 1663, 1664, 1681, 1682, 1683, 1684. 1685 and 1686.

He was selectman of Cambridge for fourteen years between 1537 and 1684, and held several other official positions. He died in Cambridge, December 2, 1788.

Joseph and his brother; Philemon, were both sea captains.

JOSEPH WINSHIP, SON OF JOSEPH 3

3 2 1

Joseph Winship, son of Joseph, Joseph, Edward, born Norwich, Connocticut, — 1727. Died at sea, Dec. 1765, He married in 1750, Elizabeth Lathrop, born in 1730. She was the only child of Jabez and Elizabeth (Rurnham) Lathrop. Jabez Lathrop was the grandson of the Rev. John Lathrop, the founder of the first independent church of London, England. He came to America in 1634, and was pastor of the church at Barnstable and Scituate, R. I., from 1634 to 1653. Elizabeth Burnham was the daughter of Eleazer Burnham and Lydia Waterman. Eleazer Burnham was the son of Lieutenant Thomas Burnham. Lydia Waterman was the daughter of Ensign Thomas Waterman and Merriam Tracy was the daughter of Lieutenant Thomas Tracy of Ipswitch. (See records of Burnham and Tracy families.)

Joseph Winship was captain and owner of a trading vessel, trading between New London, Connecticut, and the West Indies. The following is copied from the Norwich, Conn., town records:

"Capt Joseph Winship sailed from New London, Conn., October 11, 1765. He was spoken off the coast December 18, and was never heard from afterward. Lost in a storm at sea."

His son, Joseph, was with him. His home was in New London, Conn. His children were all born in Norwich, Conn. A diagram of the seatings in the church at Norwich, Conn., shows that Joseph Winship owned one of the pews. His daughter, Elizabeth, at the age of fourteen years, was summoned before Justice Richard Hyde to answer to the heinous crime of walking upon the street with another young girl and two boys upon the Sabbath day, there being no religious occasion.

His children were:

I Joseph, b. — 1750. Died 1752.
II Jabez Lathrop, b. 1752. Died 1827. Married Hannah Forsythe.
III Joseph, b. 1754. Lost at sea with his father, 1785.
IV Elizabeth, b. 1756. V Nabby, b. 1758. VI Anna, b. 1759.
VII Philotheta, b. 1761. VIII Philemon, b. 1763.

I have often heard my grandmother, the granddaughter of Joseph Winship, tell the story, that her grandmother was busy at her housework, when a young bird, followed by the parent bird, flew into the house through an open door and they beat themselves to death against the walls, and she declared it was an omen, that her husband and son were lost.

Jabez Lathrop Winship son of Joseph, Joseph, Joseph, Edward, born Norwich, Conn. 1752, died, Brookeville, Ind., 1827. Married Hannah Forsythe (date unknown) in New London Conn.. She died in Noblesville, Ind. 1836. While living in New London, Conn., Jabez Winship was a member of Capt. John Lattimers Co. Col. Samuel H. Parsons Reg't, State Militia, served 6 days on Lexington Alarm (see "Men of Conn. in Revolution").

He removed from New London, Conn. to New York State in 1777, and later to New Jersey. I have heard my grandmother (his daughter) say, "He was known as Capt. Winship and that he held a commission as captain in the Revolutionary War, had heard him tell of often having seen General Washington". I have been unable to find any record of his holding a commission.

He removed to Brookeville, Ind. in 1805 and purchased a farm upon which he lived until time of his death.

His children were:

I Joseph, b. Sept. 11, 1771. Married 1st. Betsy Bates Oct. 11, 1792. Married 2nd. Elizabeth Ross, Sept. 12, 1818.

II Elizabeth, b. March 9, 1785. Married James Ross, Oct. 13, 1799.
